PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Thou giver of every good and perfect gift, look down, we beseech Thee, as we plead Thy promises this evening for us as a Nation, as a State, and as individuals. We come before Thee asking that those words that have been pressed into the ceiling of this House may likewise be pressed into our hearts, and may the goodness that shall flow therefrom be ours in a rich and abundant measure; for only as those words burn and live as actualities in our hearts and lives, can we make those attainments ours which shall be permanent and worthy. When they are ours then are we linked with everything that shall make for progress, for righteousness, for uplift and for strength. They are the panoply and armor that nothing can penetrate; they are the safeguard and surety of the State—above all cannon and all other instrumentalities of men. In them we have a hope that shall make us rich as the years roll on. And above all, they shall add unto us no sorrow, and give unto us great joy. Therefore, we pray Thee that Thou wilt press into our hearts the words that are on this ceiling, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." May we be indeed free, free from all hypocracy and cant, all superstition and everything that belittles and harms and sullies. Amen.

NAYS—1.

Hough,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 673, file folio 3929, on page 2 of to-day's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. HICKERNELL,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 673, entitled

An Act to provide for the serilization of inmates of institutions having the care and custody of idiotic inbecile feebleminded and insane persons in cases where such sterilization will materially improve the mental or physical condition of such persons and in cases where owing to the idiocy imbecility insanity or feeble-mindedness of such persons not being in permanent custody procreation by such persons would produce off spring similarly affected

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lebanon (Mr. Hickernell) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Lebanon (Mr. Hickernell) kindly tell the House the necessity for placing an act of this kind upon the statute books?

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman who has questioned me on this bill is more able to discuss it than I am. I therefore call upon the gentleman who has just interrogated me.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: If I am to accept the complimentary remarks of my colleague and friend from Lebanon, I ask the House in all sincerity to vote no on this bill.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle) tell the House why he asks me to vote no on this bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) I would answer that question not to be short, but on the recommendation and request of my friend from Lebanon (Mr. Hickernell).

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, therefore being allowed to remain in the dark by my good friend from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle), admitting that I do not have the scientific knowledge which he has along these lines, I believe in my ignorance that this bill is the most important and the best bill which has come before this House for consideration.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, since the gentleman from Schuylkill has prolonged the discussion on this bill, and since his remarks are so instructive to the House, then I ask him to state why it is such a good bill.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I have heard many physicians of equal standing perhaps to my good friend from Allegheny (Dr. Steedle) advocate such a measure as this.

Like all expert testimony, however, when it comes to that profession there is a difference. This bill provides for the sterilization of inmates of institutions having the care and custody of idiotic, imbecile, feeble-minded and insane persons. The statistics show that the procreation from this kind of people doubles and doubles and visits the sins of the fathers unto the third and fourth generation. If there is a way in which humanity can deal properly with these individuals, ' is to make their misery end with them. If I were aware of the fact that I had a mental disturbance, I would be only too glad if those who knew better would make it impossible for me to hand the affliction down from generation to generation. That is why I am for this bill. In many States of the Union it is in operation. This bill is not a langhing matter, Mr. Speaker, but it is one which requires consideration by every member of this House. It is not a political bill, Mr. Speaker. There are no lobbyists here for or against the bill. It is a bill which should be given careful consideration, and your answer should come from your own consciences. I, therefore, advocate the passage of this measure, and I believe it is a great thing for the Commonwealth; I believe it is a great thing for humanity; and I believe it is a kindly service to those who are mentally afflicted. I judge for them as I would want you to judge for me if the positions were changed. I stand for the ending of their most terrible affliction by not having them brought into this world, by not having them here to be the butt and the joke, in many instances, of those possessing superior mental faculties, because they are unable in their mental infirmities to be of any use to anybody, but are a source of sorrow to all their good friends, to their loving fathers, and their loving mothers, and everybody who thinks kindly of them and who in their wisdom pities them.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: For fear that my remarks may be misconstrued in reference to this bill by my friend from Lebanon (Mr. Hickernell) I cannot sit idly by without answering my friend from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer). Indeed, my friends, it is most unfortunate and sad to think of the many unfortunates in this Commonwealth who have by the violation of the moral law brought sin upon their posterity. Now it is easy for a layman to stand back and say that these poor unfortunate girls or boys, or women or men, should be placed upon a table to receive a sufficient degree of a major operation that would produce sterility. Now by sterility is meant the process of destruction of the fertility of the spermatozoa of the male and the oviduct of the female. That would prevent conception, and thereby produce what this bill intends, the eradication of the evil. That as a physician I am ready to accept. But I have not forgotten that when you place an individual upon an operating table, who knows to what degree of infection it is placing that individual? Is it right that the poor unfortunate should be subjected to that possibility when he himself has not the right to interpret for himself the result? You cannot produce sterility, my friends, unless there is some degree of an operation upon the woman or girl, or upon the man or boy, and I do not know from my knowledge—and possibly I may be misinformed, the probability is I have not kept a record of my letters—but I do not know where a medical society in the State of Pennsylvania has gone on record and has advocated the passage of this bill. Now, if I am wrong I am perfectly willing to be informed, but I do not think, my friends, that in truth and honest judgment this bill should be passed at this session. If I remember correctly—and I can refer to it if I do not remember correctly—that on the Divorce Bill in this session the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) made the following remarks:

"I am not opposed to divorces where the petitioner is an innocent and injured party; where the respondent in the case has done some malicious willful act which is enumerated in the grounds for divorce as they now exist in Pennsylvania, but for a man to put away a woman or a woman to put away a man because he or she has been afflicted with a serious mental illness which is absolutely beyond his or her control, which is inflicted, as it were, by God almighty, it seems to me to be the most outrageous thing imaginable."

Now, the gentleman from Schuylkill will answer that by saying that that was his interpretation upon the divorce act. Now, the divorce act as introduced and debated in this House, which ultimately was defeated, provided, as you all know, that a man or woman had the right to divorce under the act. Now, for this is an unfortunate affair, that an individual should become insane or become feeble-minded and we have institutions all over this State into which these individuals are placed and kept under perfect observation and proper protection, if the management is correct, and I cannot see why the necessity of this act at this time is apparent. This is an old bill and has been repeatedly and repeatedly introduced, possibly for the last thirty years in every session of the Legislature, and at no session has it ever gotten beyond the House. Therefore, gentleman, I trust that you will not subject these poor unfortunates to the necessity of an operation when they can be safeguarded and protected in the proper institutions of this State.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny.

The SPEAKER Will the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask, does the gentleman from Allegheny believe in the principles of this bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, I do believe in sterilization.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, did not the gentleman make the remark a moment ago that he did believe in the principles of this bill?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, if I did, I did not mean it in that way.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask, is the gentleman's objection that the individuals must undergo a surgical operation?

Mr. STEEDLE. That is one of them. The mere fact that it forces an individual to the submission of an operation and subjects him to infection.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Allegheny use the argument that infection might occur?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I do.

Mr. PALMER. In this day of skillful surgery, does he use that argument in regard to infection?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir. At this present time, at the present hour in many cases, my good friend.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman what percentage of surgical operations finally absorb an infection where proper care is taken by a skillful operator? I want to know how many cases of surgery develop infection during the operation—what proportion.

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman will accept that those operations are to be done in the most skillful manner and under the most perfect direction, the percentage of infection in abdominal surgery is possibly about one per cent., and it may be more. Even in this day of science as we know it, from the standpoint of surgery, under the most perfect care, there is occasionally an absorbtion and infection directly through the operation, and it is absolutely unpreventable.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman from Allegheny believe in vaccination?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I do, sir.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the gentleman whether or not every once in a while does death occur through vaccination?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, it does occur as it does by infection.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, then why, on the same grounds, is not the gentleman against vaccination?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, this bill I am perfectly willing to discuss, but insofar as the gentleman's vaccination question is concerned, when that question is up I will answer anything I can so far as he asks questions, at this time as far as sterilization is concerned; that is the question under discussion and we are not discussing vaccination at this time.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman wandered off in his speech on my remarks on the divorce bill. I have great pleasure to reaffirm just what I said at that time and I still stand by that without any apology; and at the same time, I am for this bill, and why the gentleman from Allegheny, who ordinarily convinces me with his logic, should now argue as he does this time, as to that, I am of the opinion that he is far off. I desire further to inform the gentleman from Allegheny that the present Commissioner of Health of this great State, Dr. Martin, is an excellent, skillful, and eminent operator and that he believes that this bill should pass this assembly regardless of what the assemblies of old have done. Further, I desire to ask the gentleman this question before closing: Is it true that you may sterilize a patient without a surgical operation or knife, but with the X-ray?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, it is with pleasure that I can answer the gentleman from Schuylkill, because that is a specialty which I follow. It is construed and believed from perfect observation and study that under the present use of the method called Cook's Tubes that it is possible to sterilize a woman and likewise possible to sterilize a man, but there still enters a question in the sterilization by X-Rays, whether it produces sterility that is perpetual or only for the time being. It is true that women in early changes of life may be successfully treated, but it is not possible to say with a certainty that it shall never recur, or that the ovary that has been destroyed at the time of its function shall never be rejuvenated; there is still a question about that. The gentleman from Schuylkill brought evidence to bear that Dr. Martin, the present Commissioner of Health of this State, was favorable to the enactment of this bill. Now, if he is, I am not aware of it. But I do remember that Dr. Dixon, who recently died and who for many years was the Commissioner of Health of this State, absolutely opposed this bill in former sessions and to its being placed upon the Statute Books. His argument at that time was that it may possibly open the door to immoral and criminal practice by physicians. You may ask, "How could that come about?" Why, the question of determining the imbecility of the individual is left in the physician's hands and ofttimes, I am frank to admit, that men in the medical profession, like men in every other professional life, whether it be a lawyer or a minister, may violate a trust and do not walk the narrow path, and it gives them an opportunity to practice something at a time when the individual should not be operated upon or when there should not be sterilization produced upon him or her and gives him an opportunity to practice when he has not the skill to do it. There is no determination as to who shall do it or by whom it is to be determined. There is not a man in this House who can determine when there is a special case of imbecility, and it is very difficult to properly diagnose a case of imbecility. I know of cases of insanity where individuals were placed in institutions who should not have been placed there, and of my own knowledge in Pittsburgh, I know a case of that kind, and I say that we have no right to subject a man to an operation for sterilization because we have institutions into which we can place poor unfortunates, and I say in all fairness that it is unfair that people are placed in these institutions in cases of insanity, and so it is unfair to subject them to an operation for sterilization. I will now be glad to answer any question that the gentleman from Delaware may wish to ask.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, in addition to what my friend from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) said as to the testimony of Dr. Martin, I want to add further that the chief physician of the Pennsylvania Training School for Feeble-Minded Children, one of the largest institutions of this State, and Dr. Barr, the chief physician of that institution, is a man who has been connected with that institution for over thirty years, a man who has made a study of the imbecile for more than that time,—has advocated sterilization for the last ten years. He believes it is the proper thing to do in certain cases. My friend from Allegheny (Mr. Steedle), refers to certain people who have been admitted to certain hospitals with which he is connected, and states that it would be improper to have those parties sterilized. If you will notice, this bill throws around the inmates of these institutions all the safeguards it is possible to throw around them. The inmate must be passed by not only one physician, not by the relatives or his relatives' physician, but by a commission and by a court, and by the time he goes through the different processes that are required under this act, he will be sure to have been an idiotic imbecile as required in this act. And when such men, such physicians in this State as Dr. Martin, who has no peer as a surgeon, and Dr. Barr, who has no peer as far as his line is concerned, advocate sterilization I am willing to follow their lead and vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS SIGNED BY SPEAKER.

Bills numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 180.

An Act to amend section one of an act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred and seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and sixty-four) entitled "An Act to increase the pay of jurors and witnesses in this Commonwealth"

House Bill No. 802.

An Act to amend Section three of an act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and eleven entitled "An Act to restrain and regulate the use of billiard-table pool-tables and bagatelle-boards or tables kept and maintained for the use of the general public for hire or reward in cities of the first class in this Commonwealth providing for the granting of licenses and providing for punishments for the violations of the provisions of this act"

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 553.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 8, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return, herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 553, entitled, "An Act to amend section two thousand three hundred and eleven of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled, 'An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith.'"

Under the School Code as it now exists, where schools are closed on account of contagious diseases or destruction or damage of a school building by casualty and the school in consequence thereof was unable to be kept open for the minimum term required by law, the Superintendent of Public Instruction may pay such district its share of the annual appropriation.

The proposed amendment changes the act by providing that the State Superintendent shall pay school districts its share of the annual appropriation in such case.

The approval of the act, therefore, turns upon the policy of changing the discretion of the State Superintendent in such case to a mandate.

I see no good reason why this provision should not remain as it is.

For these reasons this bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. PHILLIPS, seconded by Mr. JAMES A. WALKER,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 566.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 8th, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 566, entitled, "An Act to amend part of section three of an act approved the thirteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and twenty) entitled "An Act relating to food defining food providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception by prohibiting the manufacture or sale the offering for sale or exposing for sale or the having in possession with intent to sell of adulterated misbranded or deleterious foods prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto and providing penalties for the violation thereof."

In my opinion the Pure Food Laws of this Commonwealth should not be tampered with, and instead of being weakened by amendment they should be strengthened where possible.

Nothing is more important to the people than that they should have pure foods, and one of the assurances to them that they will have is adequate laws providing against food adulteration.

For these reasons this Bill it not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. JAMES A. WALKER, seconded by Mr. RAMSEY.

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas W. Davis, offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we thank Thee for this beautiful morning. All Nature, clothed in her richest garments, is an inspiration and comfort to the body and a delight to the eye. May it be our happy experience to earry with us the spirit of unselfishness, of brotherhood, and of love. May we all realize that it is not the things we accumulate that count the most, but what we are and what we do. "Create in us a clean heart, and renew within us a right spirit," then shall we walk before Thee in righteousness and our lives will be a blessing and a comfort to our fellowmen everywhere. These favors we ask in our Saviour's name, Amen.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the mot

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Sones, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SONES. Mr. President, undoubtedly.

Mr. R. J. BALDWIN. Mr. President, I will explain to the Senate that this bill simply provides that the time fixed by Congress is to be corroborated by the laws of the State of Pennsylvania, so that in the banking business the bankers of our State may know that there is no contradiction. It is simply the act of the Pennsylvania Legislature to notify the interested public that the act of Congress is approved by the law making bodies of the State. That is the only purpose of the bill, and it is very short and very simple. I hope the Senator will withdraw his objection with that explanation unless he can offer some reason for its being recommitted.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I would ask if anyone can give me any information on Senate Bill No. 939 (House Bill No. 1226), whether that act increases the salaries.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, this raises the cost of tax searches from 25 cents to 50 cents. The city of Philadelphia becomes responsible, and the clerks in that department have never been paid. In bringing up this cost from 25 cents to 50 cents, it provides for the increase of salary in the next bill.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia what he means by increases the salary in the next bill.

Mr. PATTON. Mr. President, Senate Bill No. 939. That is an increase of salary of these clerks who make these searches.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, that was my question. I wanted to know what amount the salaries had been increased, because it has been brought to my attention on the floor of the Senate that all salary increase bills were to be put on the postponed calendar. I was desirous to know whether or not this might be one.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Thou Lord of heaven and earth, who hast told us that we should rejoice with those that do rejoice, and weep with those that weep, this morning we come with hearts that are loaded down with grief for one of our own number and company whom Thou hast seen fit in Thine inscrutable wisdom to afflict. We ask Thee this morning that Thou wilt be very nigh unto him, that his condition may be considered by Thee in the light of his home, his family, his friends and his usefulness in this body as a member. What Thou in Thy purposes and wisdom hast seen fit to order, we know that we cannot in any wise controvert, but we pray Thee that everything that can be done by human hands and medical skill, and all the kind nursing that thoughtful friends can do, may be his. His family we commit to Thy tender care, and we beseech Thee that Thou wilt draw nigh unto them in such a way as our poor, feeble words are unable to express, and our feeble human sympathies are unable to use, convey or to extend. Be thou nigh to him and prepare him for whatever eventualities shall be and may we one and all be reminded that we are but clay from which the breath of life can so readily pass away. Amen.

An Act to amend section four hundred and thirty-two and to repeal section four hundred and thirty-seven of an act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An Act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto

On the question.

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York (Mr. Cook) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. BOLARD. We understand that this bill reduces the amount the State is to pay to the townships on dirt roads from fifty per cent. to twenty-five per cent.

Mr. COOK. Yes, sir.

Mr. BOLARD. That is the purpose of the bill, is it not?

Mr. COOK. Yes, sir.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I think we all, or at least the country members are all opposed to reducing the fifty per cent. law as it has stood for some time. At first this bill reduced the amount to thirty-three and one third per cent. and then down to twenty-five per cent. I think the townships are entitled to have the fifty per cent. as the law now stands. Now the people are asking for dirt roads along the highways so that horses can travel on them. I think, under the circumstances, that it would be a mistake to change the law, and I ask you to vote against this bill.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, in 1907, when the law that is now in force was placed upon the statute books—we are aware of the fact that since that time many roads in the rural districts have been taken over by the State. The law that is now on the statute books provides that for every dollar that the township puts up in the tax system for dirt roads the State puts up fifty cents. It has been found and proven that the State has been unable to meet this demand. That law was suspended during the session of 1915. It has taken all these years to supplant that deficiency or that the State may meet that demand. After consulting with some of the senators, who have consulted the Governor and some of the men in the highway department, it was decided that possibly the State could meet a twenty-five or thirty cent basis. I introduced a bill asking for thirty-three and one-third cents on the dollar. It was further amended in committee to read twenty-five. It looks useless for us, after the State has made all these improvements to the additional roads which pass through the townships, to continue to ask for something which we cannot get. Let us come within the bounds of the State's resources, and we will be more able and more liable to get what the bill asks for. In my own opinion I think this bill ought to pass.

Mr. LANIUS. Mr. Speaker, if it were a question of personality, I would vote a thousand times for this bill, if I were permitted to do so, but I regret that I am compelled to rise and lift my voice in opposition to this measure. The fact that the State of Pennsylvania has not paid the fifty per cent. bonus is due to the fact that she did not desire to do so. We have money for everything, in fact, excepting roads. Now, Mr. Speaker, this purposes to take away half of the bonus on the dirt roads of Pennsylvania, and the argument is advanced that we did not get the money anyhow. How are we to know that we are going to get even the twenty-five per cent. This law will not be any more stable or binding than the one suspending the law until the arrears have been paid. The County of York has been asked by the people who are the advocates of good roads, to issue bonds to the amount of two million five hundred thousand dollars and upwards. This means that the taxpayers of York County will have to pay the money to keep up the interest and to finally redeem the bonds themselves. To do this, there will be an advanced tax rate, which is quite proper and just. The dirt roads have to be improved in proportion to the other improvements, and that means an additional tax on the rural districts, which will be taxed again for the county improvements on the fifty-fifty basis. Why can't the State of Pennsylvania, with its fifty million dollar bond issue, give the dirt roads of Pennsylvania the fifty per cent. basis as they promised? If I promise to do something, I am held to that promise, and surely the State of Pennsylvania is honorable enough to keep its promises. The Suspension Act of 1915 said that this act shall be suspended until the arrears shall have been paid, and the arrears will have been paid this year. Why should we crawfish and come here and say that we will not stand back of that promise to give them their fifty per cent. basis? Why? In other years the State of Pennsylvania had to appropriate four or five million of dollars for State road improvements, but that money has not been needed immediately. This is a question of about one hundred and fifty to two hundred thousand dollars, and the dirt roads should not be discriminated against. These departments have been enlarged; we have raised the Governor's salary until it is about one-fifth of that of the President of the United States; we have reconstructed other departments; we have made more generous appropriations than ever before; we have increased the teachers' salaries and have passed all sorts of laws entailing additional expense. Now the dirt roads are to be neglected. Mr. Speaker, you may pass this bill, but I tell you and the members of this House that it is against the wishes and will of the rural members of this State, and every man knows it. One argument advanced is that it is possible under this bill to get twenty-five per cent. How do we know that we are going to get even ten per cent? Why not let the law stand as it is and read fifty per cent? We should not have a law making twenty-five per cent. the maximum—that should not be done. Let them keep the law at fifty per cent. If you reduce that amount, possibly the time will come when this State will see the error of taking any money away from the dirt roads. I appeal to every member from the rural districts of Pennsylvania. I ask you to give this question very careful consideration and trust that you will vote this bill down.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,
The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1197 (Senate Bill No. 148), as follows:

An Act authorizing records of deeds in counties having a population of from one hundred and fifty thousand to five hundred thousand inhabitants to appoint a solicitor prescribing the duties of said solicitor and fixing his term of appointment and salary

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That in all counties of this Commonwealth having a population of not less than one hundred and fifty thousand nor more than five hundred thousand inhabitants as computed by the last preceding decennial census of the United States the recorder of deeds is authorized to appoint one person learned in the law to act as his solicitor

Section 2 It shall be the duty of the said solicitor to advise the recorder of deeds upon all such legal matters as may be submitted to him and to conduct any litigation in which the recorder of deeds as an officer may be party

Section 3 The solicitor to the recorder of deeds shall hold office at the pleasure of the recorder of deeds He shall receive a salary of one thousand dollars per annum which salary shall be paid out of the earnings of the office in the same manner as the deputies and clerks to the recorder of deeds are now by law paid

Section 4 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: You remember that when this bill was before this House before I, among a number of others, voted against it. Since this bill was defeated I have had a talk with its sponsor, Senator Sassaman, and I believe I was mistaken as to the purposes and the provisions of the bill. I also had Senator Sassaman agree to amend the bill in this respect. In the first instance, the bill provided that the salary of the attorney should be a thousand dollars. You will notice in the bill as amended it provides that the attorney shall receive not more than five hundred dollars. Now I find in many counties, especially those counties for which this bill provides, that it is very necessary in order that the recording of deeds and different papers be properly done, and the business of the office properly carried out, that the recorders employ attorneys. Now if you will notice, in the first place—take for instance Delaware County—the recorders receive two thousand dollars in salary. They receive two thousand dollars in salary, and then after the expenses are paid out of the receipts of the office, after the receipts of the office are paid, the balance is divided between the State and the recorder. So you can see that out of the sum the recorder pays to his attorney only half of that is afterward paid by the county or the State, and the recorder pays the balance out of his own pocket. It seems therefore only fair to the recorders that have the large business that they should not have to pay their attorney fees out of their own pockets; and I therefore agreed with Senator Sassaman to move that this bill be reinstated and put on the calendar, which has been done. I therefore think it is a proper bill at this time.

On the question recurring,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—2.

Benchoff, Willert,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 838, entitled

An Act declaring certain gas engines operated without mufflers nuisances and prescribing penalties

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford, (Mr. Boland), permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

Mr. BARHART. Mr. Speaker, I would like to have the sponsor explain the purpose of this bill.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, the object is to eradicate a nuisance caused by the internal combustion of gas by an engine and that it shall be equipped with a muffler so as to prevent any loud or disturbing noises.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, don't we already have sufficient law to prevent anything of that kind?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I will say we have no law to remedy this except to go into an equity court and get an injunction.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, under this act you can declare anything in the way of a gas engine is a nuisance, and we already have a law by which you can secure redress for a nuisance.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, you can by going into a court and filing a bill in equity and getting judgment.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, and gentlemen of the House: As this bill is drawn, it is drastic and applies to cases in which it is not necessary; at least in a large majority of cases.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, this bill must be considered as one that does not make a gas engine a nuisance unless the noise and disturbance which it makes is of such a character that it is complained against.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, this act makes it possible for every gas engine to be complained against.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, it does, if it is a nuisance and if it is in a locality where it is making itself a nuisance.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Crawford, does it not apply to any locality?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, it would not apply to any locality unless it becomes a nuisance, and a complaint becomes necessary.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman, would it not apply to any locality anywhere there is a gas engine?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, no, sir.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman, why not?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I will say because there is not going to be a nuisance or disturbance if it is taking place where there is nobody to be disturbed; there it would not be a nuisance.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman from Crawford, would it not make it possible for any person to enter a complaint against any gas engine operated from any oil well?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, we think it would not be a nuisance where it does not create any disturbance; it would not be a nuisance and would not be subject to a penalty. I will say further that this bill comes to me right from the oil country.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, this bill says, as I read it, that every gas engine is a nuisance—does it not say so?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I will refer to the text. The act says, "It shall be unlawful to operate any stationary engine, the motive power of which is created by the internal combustion of gas, unless such engine is equipped with a muffler so as to prevent any loud, annoying, or disturbing noises."

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, "It is hereby declared a nuisance." That is the reading of the bill

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, the act reads, "Unless such engine is equipped with a muffler." You are first notified that you are maintaining a nuisance, and then if you continue that nuisance and don't abate it, the law may be enforced.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman, does not the act say, "Every such gas engine is hereby declared a nuisance?" Does it not say that?

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, unless it has a muffler.

Mr. BARNHART. Mr. Speaker, this bill makes it possible to so declare; it leaves it open to so declare. Your bill here says, "It is hereby declared a nuisance." Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: For that reason, and because this bill is drastic and unnecessary, I ask that you vote it down.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, while the question has been raised, I wish to say a word on the bill. It is a bill that came to me right from the oil company. It is so drawn that it cannot hurt anybody, and the only thing that is necessary is not to run a gas engine without a muffler. It is only reasonable to a man running a stationary gas engine in the neighborhood with people trying to sleep or do business, that the man should be required to have a muffler on that engine, and it is a law that does not penalize him unless he is first notified to abate the nuisance and if he refuses to do so, then the law may be enforced. At the present time, there is no way to abate such a nuisance unless you go into court and file a bill in equity and secure an injunction, and this is a very expensive process. That is the only way you can get rid of it. The only thing to do is to go into court, and I say to you that the way the bill is perfectly reasonable. All that is required if there is any complaint is that the man complies with reasonable regulations just as automobiles are not run around on the streets without mufflers.

Mr. WONER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that the very stern fact that this bill declares every gas engine to be a nuisance that is operated without a muffler; this is a condition that is created by law and it makes no difference whether a man is served with a written notice or not, he must equip his gas engine with a muffler, and if he does not do so, the law declares that he is maintaining a nuisance, and makes him liable to prosecution. I desire to ask the members of the House to vote against the bill.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1195 (Senate Bill No. 248), entitled

An Act to amend sections one two three nine ten and eleven and to amend also sections four five and seven as amended of an act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and twenty-one) entitled "An Act to provide for State Registration of Nurses to establish a State Board of Examiners in connection therewith and to provide penalties for the violation of certain provisions regarding such registration" by providing for a change in membership of said board for an increase in salary of the secretary and educational director and for the registration of persons properly qualified as licensed attendants for the care of the sick.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if there is anyone in the House who can explain this bill and the reason for its passage at this time.

The SPEAKER. Is there anyone here who can explain this bill? The Chair hears no response.

Mr. MILNER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: I have read this bill carefully, and find it changes the law as it exists at the present time. At the present time the Board of Examiners for Nurses consists of three physicians and two nurses, and this law proposes to change that and make the number two physicians and three nurses so as to give the nurses the control of the board and take it out of the hands of the doctors. Now the nurses are the assistants to the doctors, and the technical men that should guide them in their training and pass upon their qualifications should be the physicians. The State Medical Association of Pennsylvania, comprised of the doctors from all parts of this State, at a formal meeting, passed a resolution against this bill, and called upon this Legislature to defeat it. The bill is plainly designed to loot this State Board of Examiners for Nurses and to create a number of high-salaried jobs for nurses. For instance, on the eighth page, section five of the bill, the secretary's salary is jumped from $100.00 to $2,500.00, and the director's salary is increased by $400.00, and many other sinecures are provided in this bill for favorite nurses. The idea back of it is to favor certain nurses who want jobs. The bill also lowers the qualifications of the nurses in Pennsylvania by providing for something which we have never had before. We have previously had registered nurses, who are trained in their profession, and who can be relied upon. This bill provides that there shall be a new class of nurses. Any one who has nursed any time can, by paying a fee of about $5.00, I think it is, become a licensed attendant and therefore pass off as a registered nurse. Inasmuch as this bill changes the existing law, which has worked out satisfactorily, and puts the board in the control of the nurses where it should not belong, and also lowers the standard of the nursing profession and creates a lot of high-salaried jobs, I trust it will be voted down today.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. BRADY. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. CROCKETT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, and 84 gentlemen having voted in the affirmative and 28 in the negative, the motion was agreed to, and the bill postponed.

All intoxicating liquors, receptacles and containers seized under this act, or in the custody or control of any court or officer hereunder, shall, if not returned to any claimant as herein provided, be delivered to the Prohibition Commissioner upon the determination of any proceedings relating thereto and shall be by said commissioner sold, destroyed, redistilled for their alcohol content, or disposed of as directed by the Board of State Auditors to such persons institutions as are authorized under this act to possess or dispose of the same. Every person, firm or corporation, or official, agent or employe thereof, who shall refuse to comply with the demands of any such person to permit the inspection of any such books or way bills or the making of such copies, shall be guilty of a violation of this act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. ARTHUR R. B. FOX. Mr. Speaker, I move to reconsider the vote by which this bill was ordered transcribed for third reading.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The SPEAKER declared the ayes appeared to have it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I call for a roll call on the question.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: This bill before us at this time is known as the "Fox Enforcement Act." It was brought out of the committee and put upon the calendar in the manner desired by the friends of the bill. I want to say to you that I was appealed to personally by a great many of the leaders of the State, men of affairs, asking not to put into this bill a search and seizure clause, and that request was acquiesced in because it was not thought proper to do so. When the bill came up in the House last week on second reading, on the spur of the moment, Mr. Alexander offered amendments which are now in the bill, and which provide a search and seizure clause. We desire to have these amendments removed so that the bill may come back on the calendar in the shape and form provided by the friends of the bill. I think the House owes it to put the bill back on the calendar in such shape and give it a square deal, and I therefore ask you to remove these amendments.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, this motion was made on the floor of this House and the amendments were made on the floor of this House, and everybody at that time passed upon these amendments. I think that so far as the amendments are concerned, they are properly in there, and if the reasons advanced are the only reasons for the reconsideration of the bill, I think the bill should go on to final passage.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Alexander, is it not a fact that you came last week to the Law and Order Committee and expressed yourself as doubtful whether the amendments were in the bill or not?

Mr. ALEXANDER. I did not.

Mr. VICKERMAN. I think the members of the Committee will bear me out in my statement that you came and said you were doubtful as to whether they were there or not, and I think everybody in the Committee so understood it.

Mr. ALEXANDER. I do not know why anyone would think so. I did not so express myself.

Mr. VICKERMAN. I think there are enough men who will verify my statement.

Mr. ALEXANDER. They may all be of the same opinion as you are. I did not say so and I cannot understand how anybody else could think it.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I also offered an amendment to this bill last week, and it was accepted by the House. I notice the wording of my amendment has been changed by the committee. I, therefore, object.

The SPEAKER. The only motion at the present time before the House is the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. IRA M. FOX).

Mr. NORTH. I want to say, Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House that so far as the amendments go, there is not one man in ten on an average in the House who knows what the amendments are when they are read from the desk, and for that reason, if for no other it seems to me but fair that this body of men should have the privilege of acting upon these amendments. I, therefore, hope that the motion of the gentleman from Philadelphia will prevail.

Mr. WOODRUFF. Mr. Speaker, in regard to the amendments as they now stand, I beg to say that we cannot hear back in this part of the House what amendments are being placed in the bills and we have no knowledge, as a matter of actual fact, as to what they are. I would like to see this motion prevail.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Alexander, and Mr. Heyburn.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified as follows:

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order,

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that after the reconsideration of this vote, the question recurs, shall the House agree to the amendments of the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander), and that there is nothing in order but that.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, these amendments were offered on Wednesday of last week and adopted by this House, and I want to say in the first place, that they were offered in good faith, and I want to say further than that, if these amendments are left in, I, in good faith, will vote for them. I do not believe in hypocrisy. I believe that of all the sins of the world, hyprocrisy is one of the worst, and yet, sirs, if we are going to do away with rum, as it was voted on by this House sometime ago, then take it away from the rich men's cellars the same as you are doing to the poor man. Do not let the man who stands up and votes against rum fill his cellar to overflowing. Do not let him say, "I do not care, I can vote for this measure, because I have enough in my cellar to last me all my life." If we are going to clean this world of rum, let us clean it all out and not permit the cellars of the rich to be filled to overflowing. I call on the other side to say who is fair and honest in this proposition. I call on those men who are supporting this bill to say who is sincere, and whether or not they are sincere in the whole proposition. The poor man, after this bill goes through—if it does go through—cannot go out and buy his glass of beer, but the man, with his cellar filled to overflowing, with enough to last for seventy or eighty years, can get it. It is not right,—it is not right to the laboring man today. So far as the laboring man is concerned, we are hitting him here and some place else, and we are taking away from him his personal liberty. And I say now that this House is not fair to itself if it will not vote to keep these amendments in. I ask you gentlemen, in all sincerity, to keep them in; be sincere and do not be hyprocrites.

Mr. ROBERT L. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I think that none of the real bona fide "drys" in this House will be charged seriously with hypocrisy. Gentlemen, I will go a litter farther than my friend from Delaware County, (Mr. Alexander); I will vote for this bill with or without amendments; but I am very much in favor of defeating the amendments of the gentleman from Delaware County because I think they have no place in this bill. As a separate bill they would have merit, perhaps great merit, though they would have to be amended and changed, in my opinion, to some extent. We must bear in mind, gentlemen of this House, that the Federal Constitution Amendment prohibits the manufacture, sale, importation, exportation and transportation of intoxicating liquors, and no more. Now our Pennsylvania Constitution prohibits search and seizure, except in certain cases. Now we find in these amendments authority to search and seize liquors that are possessed by somebody. It is not unlawful at the present time for a man to have liquors in his possession, if he has them for his own use. Perhaps some of you think that we ought not to possess those liquors after the country goes dry. But, gentlemen, we have no law now making it unlawful. We have no law making it unlawful for you to possess liquors and give them to your friends when they come to make you a call. Now are we not getting the cart a little ahead of the horse when we authorize public officers, whose duty it is to enforce the law, and to detect crime, to go into your house and take away the thing that you lawfully possess? Now, gentlemen, the danger in this proposition is that these amendments would be unconstitutional at this time, because you would be making a search and a seizure of a thing that is lawfully possessed by you. I believe I will go as far in this House as any man here to make effective prohibition. Some of you men perhaps would think some of us are a little radical in our advocacy of prohibition; but I do not want to go this far at this particular time, because I believe these amendments to be unconstitutional. Man is guaranteed by the Constitution of Pennsylvania against an unlawful search in his own household. You have a right to possess in your cellars or in your sideboard intoxicating liquors, as far as the laws of this Commonwealth are now concerned. If you want to make these amendments lawful and make them stand the test of their constitutionality, you must first pass a law that makes it unlawful for you to possess liquors or give them to your friends when they make you a friendly call.

Now, gentlemen, there has been a disposition in this House all during this session to play absolutely fair on the question of legislation. There has been a well-defined disposition on the part of the members of this House to keep separate matters of legislation distinct and apart, so that each part shall stand on its own footing, and stand on its own merits, and not attach a rider to a bill that has nothing to do with the subject-matter of the bill. Now if any of you gentlemen want to make it unlawful to possess in your families intoxicating liquors, that should be done by a separate bill, because that is a matter for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and is not contemplated in the Federal Amendment, which has been ratified by an overwhelming majority of the States. Let us be just as fair on this matter as we have been on other matters, and if you think these amendments are meritious, that the subject-matter of these amendments is meritorious, let us introduce a bill providing for search and seizure; and before we do that, let us make the thing to be searched for and seized unlawful. We cannot, gentlemen, do it now. In all fairness to the proposition under consideration, in all fairness to the gentleman who introduced this bill in good faith, in all fairness to the advocates of this enabling act, do not let us for a moment consider that they are hypocritical; but that they are acting in good faith, and that they want this enabling act to stand on its own feet; and then let us afterwards, when the proper time comes, consider the matter that the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander) is interested in. I wish to commend him for his stand on the matter of radical prohibition. We are mighty glad to have my friend from Delaware County stand with us, and we commend him, even if he will go a little further than we go. We are considered by some people as being a little bit radical in our advocacy of this great question; but if he comes into our camp and goes a little farther than we do, God bless him. We welcome him with open arms.

Gentlemen of this House, let us come right down and meet the facts as they exist. Do not let us threaten this proposition with its unconstitutionality; do not let us give any person the right to raise the question of the constitutionality of the law that will be under consideration; but let us keep these things separate and apart, and we will have no misunderstanding, and we will stand back of my friend from Delaware County when he presents his bill to this House. It will stand on its own merits, and we will give him the gland hand, and give him our support, and we know that the bill advocated by him will be introduced at the opportune time, and will be based upon sound legislation that will make these amendments possible, lawful and constitutional.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, it is the same old cry that we have heard from the beginning of this question to the end, that it is unconstitutional, but when we come to these gentlemen on the other side and tell them of these things that are unconstitutional, my friend from Lawrence (Mr. Robert L. Wallace), says just the very same thing. We have heard that in every issue and every attack that has been made on this constitutional amendment and in his argument he says, "No; we cannot at the present take liquor away from the rich man, but we can take it away from the poor man," and is that fair, to take advantage of the laboring men and is it fair to advance that argument. My friend, I think is sincere, but I am afraid his dictionary misleads him, as far as the definition of fairness is concerned. I cannot think that as a rich man I can have in my cellar enough provision of all kinds of wet goods for the rest of my life while my friend Ramsey next door, who cannot buy it when he wants to, cannot do so. It is not fair. If you are sincere and want to put this bill through in the proper way put it through and let us have a law that is as good for one person as for the other, but be fair about it; that is what I say.

The SPEAKER. The question is, on the amendment offered by the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander).

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. McVICAR. Mr. Speaker, I second the call.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be called.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, will you kindly explain to this House what an "aye" vote means and what a "no" vote means on this question?

The SPEAKER. The Chair will state that those voting "aye" vote to retain the amendment of the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Alexander), in the bill. Those voting "no" vote to strike this amendment from the bill.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The roll will be verified.

The SPEAKER. The vote not having been recorded, as there is a call for the verification of the roll, if the gentleman desires, he can challenge the vote and put his challenge in writing.

Mr. MAGILL. Mr. Speaker, I challenge the vote of Mr. Hickernell. He was not in his seat and did not vote.

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman in his seat and did not answer to his name?

Mr. MAGILL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman did not vote.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman state that he did not vote when his name was called?

Mr. HICKERNELL. Mr. Speaker, I did not vote.

The SPEAKER. The correction will be made.

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I understand that the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Donneley), is recorded as voting "aye" and I understand that he has been out of his seat for the last hour.

The SPEAKER. The Chair asks, is the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Donneley), in the House at the present time?

Mr. DONNELEY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, I am.

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman from Schuylkill in his seat when his name was called?

Mr. DONNELEY. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir, and I voted "aye."

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be so recorded.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, am I recorded as voting "aye"?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Lackawanna is not recorded either way. How does the gentleman wish to vote?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to vote "aye."

The SPEAKER. Was the gentleman from Lackawanna in his seat when the roll was called?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I was here talking to a representative, the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey).

The SPEAKER. Did the gentleman vote?

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, No, sir, I was talking to the gentleman from Delaware (Mr. Ramsey).

The SPEAKER. Will the House object to the vote of the gentleman from Lackawanna being recorded?

Mr. VICKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote being recorded.

The SPEAKER. If the vote is challenged, the Chair will require that the challenge be put in writing.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, does the challenge have to be made against a member when he is not in his seat when the roll is called?

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. It does not. The gentleman from Lackawanna acknowledged that he was not in his seat at the time the roll was called and did not vote. Therefore, the Chair rules that it will require unanimous consent of the House to have the gentleman's vote recorded.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I will state that before the roll was completed I was in my seat.

The SPEAKER. The Chair so rules.

On the question,

Will the House give its unanimous consent to recording the vote of the gentleman from Lackawanna, Mr. Fowler?

The Chair hears objection.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that although a member of this House is within the bar of the House, that he is not privileged to vote upon a measure unless he is in his seat.

The SPEAKER. No; that is not what the Chair stated. The gentleman was within the bar of the House, but he did not vote when his name was called, and he admitted that, and having failed to do so, it is necessary for the gentleman to get unanimous consent to have his vote recorded, which the House has refused.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I thought that if the gentleman was within the bar of the House, that he might have the privilege of being recorded, because he was subsequently in his seat.

Mr. POWELL. Mr. Speaker, I wish further information. I understand that the gentleman from Lackawanna was in his seat when his name was called but that he didn't hear it. Furthermore, I don't think that the gentleman from Lackawanna would have been in order if he had interrupted the roll call.

The SPEAKER. There is no record of the House that the Chair made any statement as to the manner he voted prior to the verification of the roll. The Chair didn't even receive the challenge of the vote.

Mr. FOWLER. Mr. Speaker, I am in doubt whether my name was called.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman admits that he was not in his seat and that he did not hear his name called, and that he did not vote. For that reason, the Chair stands upon its ruling.

The roll was verified as follows:

Amend section 5, page 4, lines 1 and 2, by striking out the following "facture and sale of flavoring extracts and soda water flavors for culinary and flavoring purposes only."

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendments?
They were agreed to.
On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section as amended?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the following amendment.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk.

The amendment was read by the Clerk as follows:

Amend section 5, line 29, after the word "preparations" by inserting the words "or prevent the manufacture and sale of flavoring purposes only."

On the question,
Will the House agree to the amendment?

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen: Last week when I offered this amendment the president and also the Secretary of the National Extract and Soda Water Flavoring Association came here to Harrisburg after I telephoned to them to come before the committee, and they asked that that amendment should be inserted for the protection of their business. It is a legitimate business, has millions of dollars invested in it, and I think it is your duty not to harass them. These people have been harassed in former years by our pure food commission. This is only a fair amendment, and I think we should be fair to these gentlemen and have this amendment put in the bill in the way offered. It is not out of the way, and it is our business to give them fair protection.

Mr. SHOWALTER. Mr. Speaker, the amendment submitted by the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dilsheimer) is the same amendment that the House ordered stricken out a few moments ago. If you will refer to file folio 4349, the last line, you will find that it reads as follows: "Or prevent the manufacture and sale of flavoring extracts and soda water flavors for culinary and flavoring purposes only." Now, if you read on, you will find that soda waters are again mentioned; so that the subject matter that is covered by this amendment submitted by the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dilsheimer) is already in the bill. The bill then reads: Provided that it shall not be unlawful to manufacture, buy, sell, or deal in any medicinals, pharmaceutical, scientific, sacramental, mechanical, culinary flavoring soda water flavors or toilet preparations." Now, in the committee we had an understanding with the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dilsheimer), that that should go into the bill, and "soda water flavors" was inserted by the committee at the request of the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Dilsheimer); so I take it that the subject matter in his amendment is already in the bill, and it is useless for us to adopt this amendment proposed by him, as it is simply a repetition of what is already in the bill.

The SPEAKER. That question is a question for the House to determine.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, may we have the amendment read again?

The amendment was again read by the Clerk.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, that amendment is now in the bill.

Mr. DILSHEIMER. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen: As I said before, the Chairman and the Secretary of the National Extracts and Soda Water Flavoring Association were here for this amendment themselves for their own protection. Now the way the amendment is drafted by the committee it is something entirely different. While it sounds similar, it is not the way they wanted it, and I think it is not more than right for the manufacturers to be protected. They came to Harrisburg and paid their expenses and lost time to look after their interests and have this amendment made, and I think we are here to protect legitimate business and not to harass them in the future. I ask you gentlemen to uphold the amendment as it was originally drafted by the manufacturers.

Mr. SINCLAIR. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that we are wasting a lot of valuable time. I do not think that the sponsor of this bill himself knows what he wants, and I therefore move to recommit it to the Committee on Law and Order for the purpose of amendment.

Mr. RAMSEY. Mr. Speaker, I strenuously object to this bill going back to the Committee. I believe that the bill has been in the Committee often enough.

On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the amendment?
It was not agreed to.
On the question recurring,
Will the House agree to the section as amended?
It was agreed to.
The title was read and agreed to as follows:

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1430, entitled

An Act fixing the time within which any person arrested shall be conveyed before a magistrate alderman or justice of the peace to be dealt with according to law and providing a penalty

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Sowers) to explain this bill and the necessity for its passage, it being a part of the penal code.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Sowers) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like the gentleman to explain the bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the law to-day on this subject is that when an arrest is made it is not necessary for the police officer or officers making an arrest to immediately take the prisoner before a magistrate for the purpose of fixing bail. In the ordinary practice of criminal law the defendant, when arrested, is immediately taken before the magistrate for the purpose of having bail fixed; but if there is any ulterior motive to be served, the officer does not take the defendant immediately for the fixing of bail. Now this bill does not mean that the prosecutor should have all his evidence ready at the preliminary hearing. He should have some evidence there to make out some kind of a case. Then the magistrate can fix the bail and hold the defendant for further hearing. That is the reason that prompted me in offering this bill. I know of a case where a defendant was arrested and held two or three days without bail being fixed, and I submit to this House that this is a great injustice. Yet a man can be arrested and detained two or three days without fixing bail. I ask the House to vote for the bill.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Sowers) what he means in the bill where it reads, on line 10, after the words "arrest was made," "or sooner if possible?"

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman repeat the question; I did not hear it.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, if the time ends after twenty-four hours, "or sooner if possible," what does that mean?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, that is to take care of this: in the country, if a man was arrested there might be no place where they could confine the prisoner within four or five miles or ten miles, from the place he lived. In the city of Philadelphia a man might be arrested at a certain place, and magistrates are scattered all over the city, and it is possible to give the man a hearing within three or four hours, or a couple of hours, after his arrest. The fact, in my mind, is that as soon as a man is arrested, instead of spiriting him from one station house to another, and preventing his friends from knowing where he is, and preventing them from getting a copy of the charge and getting the bail fixed, he should be taken before the magistrate at once. The idea of the police officer is that when the arrest is made the man should be punished instead of furnishing bail. In other words you will recall, in the city of Philadelphia, four or five years ago, when a heated political contest was going on, men were arrested in the early morning, taken from one district station house to another, and when their friends got there and tried to get a copy of the charge, the prisoner was taken out and put back in another station house somewhere else. So the entire day passed without getting bail. You can understand why.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, would this change the status of the police officer?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, it would change the status of the police officer; yes.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, how?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, if this bill was enacted into law, and an arrest was made and the police officer did not make an effort to take the prisoner before a magistrate immediately, he would be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, not if he took him within twenty-four hours, would he?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, or sooner if possible.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, or sooner if possible, would he? Don't it say twenty-four hours?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I will read it to you. Let me read: "such police officer, State police, constable or other persons within twenty-four hours from the time the arrest was made." Would not that give the officer twenty-four hours?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, now I ask what is meant when the bill says on lines 12 and 13, "committed to be dealt with according to law?" What does that mean?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the words "within twenty-four hours"—

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, the second question—

Mr. SOWERS. Will you pardon me?

Mr. SIMPSON. Certainly.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, within twenty-four hours from the time the arrest was made or sooner if possible.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, then would it not give the arresting officer twenty-four hours before it would be absolutely necessary, or before you could under the section—

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, before you could, under the second section, convict the officer?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, no.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, then you would fine the officer according to your judgment?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, according to the status of the case.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, now in reference to that part of the bill on line 13, what is meant when it says, "be dealt with according to law?"

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, those words mean the same as in any other act of Assembly, to be held under bail for further hearing or to be held for court.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman know, as a matter of fact, that it would be construed that, unless evidence was produced at that time, the defendant would go absolutely free?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, such is not the law, and never was.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, such is the law in all cases where the defendant is brought before a committing magistrate without sufficient evidence to hold him for court.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman repeat that question? I did not hear it and would ask him to speak a little louder.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, the bill reads on line 13, "be dealt with according to law." Now does that mean to be dealt with so that the party has an opportunity to furnish bail? Why does the gentleman not put it in clear and distinct language, so that the committing magistrate would know exactly what had to be done?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the reason I used the words "to be dealt with according to law" is that almost all the laws of this Commonwealth have the same words, and those words have been passed upon by the courts and have a fixed and definite meaning. The meaning is that the magistrate has the power to fix the bail and grant a further hearing or hold the defendant for court.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, does he know of any Penal Code that has been passed for the sole purpose of allowing a committing magistrate to fix bail, as you told us in the first part of your argument— do you know of any act that has been passed for the sole and express purpose of allowing a committing magistrate to hold a man under bail without having evidence produced before him.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, if no evidence is produced before the magistrate except the statement of the officer, the magistrate then will probably hold the defendant for a day or two, under bail, for a further hearing.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, does the gentleman not know of hundreds of cases where men are arrested as suspicious persons whom it would be absolutely impossible for the committing magistrate to hold on the hearing or the testimony of a detective to furnish the evidence necessary to hold that man under bail; he could not hear him and that party goes scot free under your act?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Allegheny is absolutely wrong.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask the gentleman, does he not know of any cases of that kind?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I don't catch the gentleman's thought.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, does not the gentleman know of hundreds of people being arrested on the charge of being suspicious persons, and that if the committing magistrate was compelled to decide the question within twenty-four hours, the detective bringing him in on that charge would be absolutely at a loss to furnish competent evidence within twenty-four hours or a sufficient amount of evidence to either commit that person to jail or hold him under bail.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I think the difficulty with the gentleman from Allegheny is, that you start with the wrong premises; the difficulty with you is, that you start with the wrong thought. The magistrate has discretionary power to hold a defendant for court or to hold him for a further hearing, if it appears to the magistrate that there is reasonable ground to believe that an offense was committed, and if the evidence is not then and there immediately present, the magistrate may hold the defendant over for a further hearing, during that interval of time, and this would fix the time.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, let me say this: That if it is true when a person is brought up for a hearing, does not the magistrate decide the question in Philadelphia according to the evidence that is produced before him?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the Philadelphia magistrates decide on the offense from the evidence they hear on the witness stand.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's assertion with reference to the fact is that if he had only a suspicion that such was the case, notwithstanding that, he would hold him for a further hearing.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, if the magistrate had reasonable grounds to believe that an offense was committed, he would hold him for a further hearing.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, how would he do that if they had only that much evidence and were in doubt in regard to the statement being correct?—how then could he possibly hold him?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, if the police officer has such facts as warrant his being held on a charge that an offense was committed, the magistrate will hold him.

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, I mean that the evidence may only have the inference.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the proposition is this: Those hearings are produced at a preliminary meeting or hearing strictly according to the rules, but they may not be positive evidence; there may be hear-say evidence; it may be the testimony of an officer, and you know as well as I know that warrants are sometimes sworn out on hear-say, and on grounds that are founded on information, if there is information before the magistrate, and he will hold the defendant for a further hearing.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will request that more quiet will be kept in the room.

Mr. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, I was going to suggest that the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Philadelphia be permitted to go into an ante-room and settle this matter between themselves so that we may proceed with the third reading calendar.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Sowers) will proceed.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, does the Chair mean that we shall proceed to the ante-room?

Mr. SIMPSON. Mr. Speaker, do you suggest that Mr. Williams go with us? Possibly Mr. Williams will go with us, and should go with us as Mr. Williams evidently forgets that this act is intended to become a part of the Penal Code, and it is a matter of great importance, not only to the members of this House but to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, when you come to affix a statute, to add to the Penal Code of Pennsylvania, it ought to be in clear, distinct, unmistakable language. If the only thing that this act is for is for the purpose of adding a certain to the Penal Code, then it should be made for that purpose. If for the purpose of allowing criminals to go free, then it ought to state that in clear, unmistakable language. I am opposed to fixing any law on the statute books, to become a part of the criminal code that is not clear and unmistakable in its language. I am opposed to putting any statute on the books to become a part of the Penal Code to allow any man to escape that happens to be arrested as a suspicious person, or committed to jail without evidence being produced in twenty-four hours. That evidence could not possibly be produced in many cases in twenty-four hours. It is absolutely impossible in a hundred thousand cases every year to produce evidence in twenty-four hours in order that that man might be held under bail or sent to jail, and for that purpose the evidence cannot possibly be produced in many cases of having him committed to the county jail, to be tried first before the grand jury and then before the petit jury in the quarter sessions court. While I believe that every man ought to have a fair opportunity; every criminal or every man who is tried for a criminal offense ought to have a fair opportunity and ought to be tried fairly by a just jury, but I don't believe that the time has come when we ought to allow such a man to go scot free simply because we cannot produce possibly the evidence necessary to hold that man for the quarter sessions court within the time specified, twenty-four hours. I am opposed to affixing any act to the Penal Code that is not any more clear than this. No person can tell what it means, "to be dealt with according to law." I don't know what it means and I have practiced in the criminal courts for a good many years. I ask you to vote this act down.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, the words in this bill that the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Simpson) thinks are very vague and indefinite, are most clear and positive. The words are, "to be dealt with according to law." When a man is taken before a magistrate "to be dealt with according to law," there is one of three things that can happen to him: First, to be held for court. Second, to be held and committed in a day or two or four days or in a week, for a further hearing. The third proposition, is an absolute discharge. The words "dealt with according to law" have a full and definite meaning, and it means "according to law" as it now exists.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I have one or two thoughts on this matter that I would like to express very briefly. From what the sponsor of the bill says in regard to Philadelphia, they no doubt need some relief in that bailiwick; but there are two points in this bill that seem to me to be not good legislation. The first is that if a man, for instance, was arrested in the city of Philadelphia after committing a crime in the county seat of Meadville, how in the name of common conveyance could you get him to Meadville inside of twenty-four hours; and if that constable done the very best he could, he would be a violator of the law and subject to penalty before he arrived at Meadville. I say, for that reason, it is wrong.

In the second place, as I read it, it says he must deliver that prisoner to the magistrate from whom the warrant was issued. As I understand the criminal practice now, the prisoner has a right to go before the first committing magistrate he comes to and give preliminary bail in most cases. If that is the law, this bill apparently deprives the prisoner of that right, and the constable must convey him not to the nearest magistrate to give bail, but back to the one who has issued the warrant.

For these two reasons, I think the bill is not well prepared, and not a good general proposition, and that it would be best to have legislation prepared solely for the relief of Philadelphia.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1096, entitled

An Act relative to the costs in civil suits or actions before Magistrates Aldermen and Justices of the Peace and the collection of the same

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lancaster (Mr. Joseph T. Evans) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know what the necessity is for this bill.

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. Mr. Speaker, the necessity, as I see it, is this: In 1909 the Assembly passed a bill which provided that when appeals were taken in civil suits a bond was given for the balance of the debt, costs and interests, upon the payment of a dollar and a half, and then the case was appealed to the Prothonotary of the Court. In a large number of cases the cases were never pushed to completion and the alderman was out a part of his costs, and the constable altogether. Now there is no provision or law by which an alderman or constable can recover his cost unless the case is pushed to completion. I introduced this bill at the request of the State Alderman's Association. I spoke to the president of the Association and also to Alderman Hoverter, of this town. Both of them told me that they have over five hundred dollars on their dockets today, in unpaid and unadjudicated cases.

Mr. KENNEDY. Isn't the reason for that because of the fact that justices of the peace and aldermen, in a great majority of the cases, render judgment for the plaintiff, regardless of the merits of the defense?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. I do not think so. It might be the case with a few individual aldermen, but they should not do it.

Mr. KENNEDY. Don't you know that is true?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. They do that in some cases, probably, but that is the fault of the alderman.

Mr. KENNEDY. Why should a litigant be required to pay the costs in cash on an appeal before a magistrate or justice of the peace, when he is not required so to do in any other court of the Commonwealth?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. Because the amount involved is not of sufficient size. You can take an appeal from a magistrate up to three hundred dollars, but above that you must go to the Court of Common pleas.

Mr. KENNEDY. Are not the costs of the magistrate already secured by a real estate bond?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. No.

Mr. KENNEDY. Can you take an appeal from the decision of a magistrate without giving a bond?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. You give a bond, yes, you give a bond, but if the case is not pushed to completion, the magistrate cannot collect.

Mr. KENNEDY. But their costs are secured by bonds?

Mr. JOSEPH T. EVANS. Yes, and they get it if they live long enough.

Mr. KENNEDY. Mr. Speaker, I think we should consider this bill very carefully before passing judgment upon it. On its face it looks like a reasonable proposition, that justices of the peace and magistrates should be allowed to demand and collect their costs in cash, before delivering a transcript of appeal. The law is now that when you take an appeal from a magistrate or alderman you pay a dollar and a half for a transcript and file a bond covering the balance of the debt, costs and interests, so their costs now are amply secured by bond. Now where this thing might lead to abuse is this: that a great many of the magistrate courts and justices of the peace courts—not all of them—are self-constituted collecting agencies. The result of this legislation would be that those men would take hold of every case that comes into them, regardless of the merits, and give judgment to the plaintiff, because they know that they would get their costs right away, regardless of whether the defendant had a good defense or not. The defendant would be required to pay the costs in cash before taking an appeal, and after he takes his appeal, then he would be required to spend many times the amount of the costs of the justice of the peace in order to put up his defense and recover the costs paid to the magistrate. Now there will be two abuses that I can see, the one I pointed out, which will require the litigants to pay the costs in cash before taking the appeal, and the second is, that you are going to clog your Common Pleas courts with a lot of petty cases which should never get into the courts. I think we should consider these questions carefully before voting on this bill.

Mr. ALEXANDER. Mr. Speaker, I have noted very carefully what the gentleman from Beaver said about the abuse, but the trouble is with the present law, the innocent man, the justice of the peace, the man doing the work, has been the man to suffer. It is true the justices of the peace many times find a verdict for the plaintiff, when we think the defendant should have been given the verdict, but in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred we sue a man who is a beat and who will not pay his debts at any time. He gets out of it by entering a bond of some kind and delays the case as long as possible, while the justice and the constable who have done the work and who are innocent people are waiting for their money. The case is put off term after term, term after term, for two or three years, and it is seven or eight terms before his case is called and the defendant does not pay the money up to that time and still refuses to pay his debt. But when he takes out his appeal, as the old act was for several years, not only did he have to give a bond for future costs but he had to pay the costs as far as he has gone. The gentleman says that in no other court is he required to pay the costs before the appeal is taken. I am sure he knows that you must pay the costs when an appeal is taken to the Supreme Court, so why should not the poor justice and the constable get their costs?

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—1.

Hough.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1355 (Senate Bill No. 558), entitled

An Act providing an additional method for the collection of delinquent borough and school taxes in boroughs

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MARSHALL. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House: As this is a Senate bill, it is impossible to interrogate the sponsor. I would like to ask if there is any member in the House who is looking after this bill for the sponsor, who is available for interrogation.

Mr. Speaker, there seems to be no one present who is looking after this bill for the sponsor. Before the vote is taken on this bill, I wish to call the attention of the members of the House to its provisions and also to the importance of this legislation. To my mind, it would be a mistake to pass this bill.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1471 (Senate Bill No. 733), entitled

An Act providing for the condemnation by the Commonwealth of lands suitable and desirable for forestry purposes and defining the powers and duties of the Department of Forestry or the Department of Conservation in relation thereto

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate somebody in reference to this bill, if anybody knows about it.

The SPEAKER. Will any gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, the title of this bill calls for defining certain powers and duties of the Department of Conservation. As I understand it, the Department of Conservation is a combination of several departments that is in progress in the Senate, and this bill has not reached us yet, and should not apply to the Department of Conservation. As no one seems to be able to explain the provisions of the bill, I think it should be placed upon the postponed calendar.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, as no one seems to be able to explain this bill, I move that further consideration of the bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. WILLIAM DAVIS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O Thou who has commanded us that we should humble ourselves, we pray Thee that we may be conscious of Thy will and that we may not wait until Thou, in Thy wrath, must break us with a rod of iron. Lest we forget, help us to see that personification of abject misery that now dwells in Holland, who once was the cynosure of all Europe, but who, in his great greed for glory and honor, assailed the heights of power and hurled his battalions against the world and caused nameless shame and boundless misery. May this make all men of power stop and think lest they abuse the same, and may the common people ever remember that vigilance is the price of their liberty, as has been so often said. Spare us likewise, we pray Thee, from the tyranny of a Lenine and a Trotsky, who offer to the world their paradises that are, after all, nothing more than emptiness and vacuity and that lead only to the valley of dry bones and cause the people to feast on the apples of Sodom Gomorrah. Grant unto us then, we pray Thee, the spirit of humility and keep us from all form of tyranny. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The roll shows that 152 members have answered to their names, and therefore a quorum is present. On the last roll call but 52 out of the 152 members present answered to their names. The Chair does not desire to insist on absolute quiet, but the Chair must insist that such quiet be maintained in the chamber as will promote and not obstruct the business of the House. Under Rule 49 of the House "No member shall be permitted to vote on any question unless he be within the bar, and when the ayes and nays are called, he be present to answer to his name." The Chair could rule that when a man does not answer to his name when called, he will not be recorded, but the rule has not been strictly enforced. However, there must be such order as will not interfere with the progress of the business of the House. The members in the rear of the hall have entered complaint that they are unable to hear, and are frequently unacquainted with the business before the House on account of the confusion, and for that reason the Chair will request that the members preserve order.

The doors will now be opened by the Sergeant-at-Arms, and the Chair will order a roll call on House Bill No. 1024, file folio 4545, and the Clerk will proceed with the call.

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PIDGEON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed on the postponed calendar.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I object at this time to the further postponing of the bill, and I will ask for a roll call.

The SPEAKER. Is there a second to the motion?

Mr. DONALD D. MILLER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion that this bill be postponed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I am going to oppose the putting off of this bill for the purpose of dodging or ducking the vote. Now I am going to ask for a roll call, and it will be just as much a test vote on this roll call as to whether you are going to vote for the bill or against it. The measure was handed to me, Mr. Speaker, by the leading colored leader of Pennsylvania with the assurance that they had the support of the Republican leaders of this State and that I would get every assistance to put this measure over. Mr. Speaker, they are passing the buck, and they are not going to pass it to me or the colored people for whom I am the sponsor for the bill. It is up to the Republican members here to put this bill over, and if there are not one hundred and four of them here to put it through, it is time the colored people learn who are their friends.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would state that it is entirely within the province of any member of the Legislature to make a motion to postpone a bill if he desires to make such a motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I demand a roll call on this motion.

The SPEAKER. There is nothing in order but the roll call. The Clerk will call the roll.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a few remarks on this bill. I take it for granted that every man on the floor of this House today—

POINT OF ORDER.

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order. This privilege was refused me just a little bit ago after the roll call was ordered.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be given an opportunity to address the House immediately after the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Geary) takes his seat.

Mr. GEARY. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House, as I said before, I take it for granted that every man in the House to-day is just as familiar with the measure we are about to vote on, as I am, and for that very good reason, I am not going to take up the time of the House or tire you members with any lengthy talk in favor of this bill, which is a copy of an act that has been a law in New York State for some years, and from all reports, is working in a manner satisfactorily to all the people in that great state.

The bill gives the right to every citizen, regardless of race or color, the equal protection of the law. It prohibits the usual discrimination as practiced almost universally against the negro, and provides that any person so discriminated against can have recourse through law. This is merely going a step further than the law of 1887, that failed through the inability to enforce it. When you consider the rights of thousands and thousands of citizens residing in this state are involved, I know that you will agree with me that this question must be given much consideration.

At this moment the negro citizen in Pennsylvania is anxiously awaiting the vote on this bill, and there are hundreds of black men who recently returned from over there after baring their breasts in many ways, fighting for what was right and just, and for the glory of this nation, not to speak of those who gave up their lives, and to-day lay buried on foreign soil.

When we consider the wonderful service given to this country through all the years, down to the present time, coupled with the supreme efforts made by the colored race in the war with Germany, I am sure that we all must feel that the colored man must be granted certain liberties which he has thus far been unable to enjoy. I know that Fort Wagner, Fort Pillow, Pittsburgh Landing and the more recent battles of the world's war, stand out prominently in the minds of all you people, and I know you feel that it is only fitting that we grant to this race that toleration that is taught by our Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States, which granted free and equal rights to all races.

The colored men of to-day are far in advance, both educationally and financially, of the position that might have been granted to them years age. They own millions of dollars worth of property; they pay their respective share of taxes; they are decent, law-abiding citizens. They have never failed to respond nobly to the call of the country. During the several Liberty Loan drives they have come to the front in a manner that has brought forth the highest commendation from those in charge of the loans. When the country need men to protect the world from the Hun, thousands of them left their homes and work, enlisting in the service of the country that has meant so much to them. Now why not let the country, through this state, give to them the reward which they have so richly earned? Why not let them enjoy the same privileges as the other races? Why prohibit them from enjoying the highest grade of music, drama and education? Why not open the door and allow these people to elevate themselves and wipe away the slighest possible trace of prejudice? Let the colored man prove to you, through this legislation, that he is worthy of any efforts that you may make in his behalf. I feel sure if you vote this concession to the colored people of this State, that they will use their every effort to prove to you that your belief in them has not been misplaced.

My friends, if you only knew the negro as I do, if you mixed, mingled and associated with him as I have, there would not be a vote against this bill. The opposition to the measure is the result of hatred, prejudice and ignorance, that comes from those who do not know the negro, who fails to understand that in granting him equal rights, our own will be better secured. Or in other words, our rights will not be endangered. I have always considered it a privilege, both in private and public life of twenty years, to defend the rights of the negro, and to oppose those who by unreasonable regulations, would cause discord and strife. You members of the House who believe in the principle of liberty and justice and fair play for all people, by voting in favor of this bill, will be righting a wrong for which the negroes of this State will be ever grateful.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Armstrong (Mr. ARMSTRONG).

Mr. ARMSTRONG. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to speak on this bill, but the ruling of the Chair a few moments ago, when my bill was under consideration, was that I was not permitted to make any remarks on the bill after the Chair had ordered a roll call.

The SPEAKER. The Chair does not desire to cut off debate on any bill, and it has been the custom always to permit members to speak upon the bills in which they are interested.

Mr. COX. Mr. Speaker, the exception that the gentleman from Armstrong takes to the ruling which I made a few minutes ago, is absolutely incorrect. At the time he desired to make his remarks a roll call had been ordered and the Clerk had already called four or five names. I think every member who is familiar with parliamentary procedure knows that when a roll call has been ordered, and some of the names called, there is nothing in order but the roll call.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his qu[illegible].

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to know whether we are voting on the bill itself or the motion to postpone?

The SPEAKER. The House is voting on the final passage of the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 8:45 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Robert S. Spangler) in the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The Chair wishes to announee that we have this evening the honor of having with us Colonel Rickards, of Oil City, the commander of the 28th Division, who has seen service abroad and who brings with him a reeord of gallant and distinguished serviees in behalf of his country. I take pleasure in introducing to the members of the House and to the visitors present, Colonel Rickards, who will say a few words to us this evening.

ADDRESS BY COLONEL RICKARDS, COMMANDER OF THE TWENTY-EIGHTH DIVISION (IRON DIVISION) IN THE WORLD WAR WITH GERMANY.

COLONEL RICKARDS. Mr. Speaker and gentlemen of the House of Representatives, and friends: This is eertainly a great honor and wonderful privilege to speak to you for a moment at this time. It is unnecessary for me to go back over the history or the events enacted by the 28th, your Pennsylvania Division, in the war with Germany. It is all too fresh in your mind. I want to say this to you, however, that had it not been for the charitable recognition on the part of this House and the executive offieers of this State, and the guiding hand of that glorious man, General Thomas J. Stewart (Applause), that the nation would have lost one of the strongest elements in its make-up for warfare. I bring to you and the good people of Pennsylvania nothing but the highest words of commendation and appreciation from the men of my command. It was my honor to eommand the troops which were originally organized in the Northwestern part of Pennsylvania, afterwards amalgamated with those of the Central part, the 8th Regiment, whose headquarters was in this city. As time went on the regiment was represented by men of every State of the Union, and here is an opportunity I want to take: I want to impress on your minds, as forcibly as it is in my power to do, that these young men who have been abroad—and not only them but those who have been waiting on the fields in the South and in the training camps, wherever they have been, only waiting for the word to carry them across, ready to serve their country in any capaeity—I want to commend them to your earnest consideration, remembering that they have done a valorous duty, that they are worthy of every consideration it is possible for you to extend to them; that many of them, in fact, all of them are young men. They have learned the lessons of discipline; they have learned the lessons of war; they have learned, in a measure, to govern themselves, and in this respect have fitted themselves better for the social life, for the citizenship, than they were before. So that I ask you, wherever these men may eome before you asking for your counsel, for your aid, whatever it may be, that you give them a listening ear and extend the hand of help wherever you ean. I thank you for this privilege. (Applause).

The SPEAKER. The Chair, in the name of the House, wishes to thank Colonel Rickards, for his admirable words and wishes him God-speed in civil life.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1534, entitled

An Act making it unlawful for any mutual fire insurance company organized in this Commonwealth to issue a non-assessable policy without having sufficient assets and repealing existing laws

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL DROPPED FROM THE CALENDAR.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, this bill was prepared by the Insurance Commissioner and introduced by me at his request. The purpose of the bill was to rid the State of some insurance companies that had been carrying on a business in an illegitimate manner, and not carrying the business on under the supervision of the Insurance Commissioner of the State. During the last three or four days the representatives from the mutual insurance companies of Pennsylvania have held several conferences with the Insurance Commissioner, and an agreement has been entered into whereby the insurance companies are willing to come within the supervision of the Insurance Commissioner, and it is at his request that I desire to have this bill dropped from the calendar, but before making that motion I desire to have a transcript of the agreement entered into the records of this House. The following is the agreement: "As a result of conferences held within the past few days between representatives of the leading Mutual Fire Insurance Companies of the State and the Insurance Department, at request of the Mutual Companies, House Bill No. 1534, is withdrawn. Representatives of the Mutual Companies have expressed their full interest in the Insurance Department's efforts to place the Mutuals of this State on a high plane, and have agreed to appoint representatives with full power to act, for purposes of providing, under direction of the Insurance Commissioner, a standard form of Mutual Fire Insurance policies to subject themselves to control by the Department, and to standardize, under direction of the Department, their methods of underwriting and accounting on practicable lines. The Mutuals are well aware that many abuses have been prevalent, and are most desirous of keeping the Mutual field above criticism and complaint."

This agreement is signed by C. R. Lantz, President of the Pennsylvania State Association of Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. This agreement also contains the following: "The Insurance Department agrees to withdrawal of this bill on this understanding and agreement." (Signed) Thomas B. Donaldson, Insurance Commissioner.

I desire at this time personally, and on behalf of the members of the House interested in this legislation, and those in the Commonwealth who are interested in placing the insurance business on a sound and legitimate basis, to congratulate the Insurance Commissioner in arriving at such a successful and amicable arrangement with the insurance companies. I feel, as do those who are most interested in the subject, that the victory achieved by the Insurance Commissioner is one of the most notable in the State for many, many years, and will place the insurance business, as well as his administration in this Commonwealth, upon the very highest basis. I now move, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

Mr. EHRHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege for the purpose of making an announcement. This afternoon, over at Island Park, two baseball teams of the House of Representatives played a baseball game for the charities here in Harrisburg. As the Treasurer of that fund, I wish to announce that the total receipts so far amount to the sum of $131.54. From this amount there will no doubt have to be deducted a small bill for printing, but then, possibly, there will be other receipts coming in that will offset this amount.

While I am on my feet, Mr. Speaker, as a Philadelphian, realizing that to-morrow is to be a great day in our beloved State, when we will welcome back to our country the 28th Division, when the Legislators, together with their families, will visit our city, I feel sure that I speak from the hearts of my colleagues from the city of Philadelphia in extending to you a cordial welcome to Philadelphia. We all hope that nothing but great pleasure and great happiness will fill your hearts on this occasion. However, sometimes you may find yourselves in need of those who might render you an assistance, providing you find yourself in a position where you will need such friendship. You can never tell, and so the members of this body from the city of Philadelphia stand ready and willing to assure you of our cordial support and friendship in case that you need us. We welcome you to our homes and will give to you that hospitality for which our city is noted.

BILLS ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1465 (Senate Bill No. 682), entitled

An Act to amend section three article five of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws five hundred and sixty-eight) entitled "An Act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class regulating nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" by adding thereto clause forty-nine relative to the collection and disposal of garbage ashes and other waste and refuse matter

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WILLSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like the sponsor to explain this bill.

The SPEAKER. This is a Senate bill.

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the interrogation of the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Willson), I may say that I have interviewed the sponsor of this bill, and I am informed that under the provisions of the bill a municipality may, if it is so desires, engage in the collection of its garbage and ashes. There is nothing compulsory. It leaves the question entirely with the municipality. This is undoubtedly a proper bill, and it seems to me that it would be wise to pass it and give those municipalities that wish it the right to engage in that municipal work.

Mr. WILLSON. Mr. Speaker, it gives them the option, does it?

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, it gives them the option.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

NAYS—0.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1194 (Senate Bill No. 509), entitled

An Act requiring certain standard provisions in policies of insurance issued against loss or damage resulting from accident to or injury suffered by an employe or other person or against loss or damage to property caused by horses or by any vehicle drawn propelled or operated by any motive power and for which the insured is liable

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire if there is any gentleman here who can explain the provisions of this bill.

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, I am familiar with this bill.

Mr. PHILLIPS. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia (Mr. Glass) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, yes, sir.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Clearfield will proceed.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, on page 2, line 4, 5, and 6, it says, "If a foreign corporation or by any person, partnership or association authorized to do business in the State unless there shall be continued within such policy a provision that the insolvency or bankruptcy of the insured shall not release the insurance carrier from the payment of damages for injury sustained or loss occassioned during the life of such policy." How can an insurance company that becomes insolvent and goes into bankruptcy be responsible for the loss or injury sustained by the person?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, all that this bill provides is this: That where a policy of casualty insurance is issued by any insurance company, that the policy cannot be cancelled and that it is in effect even if the insured becomes bankrupt or dies. In other words, if any of us insure our automobiles, if we have any, and an accident happens to someone and subsequently we become bankrupt or we die, the fact that we are bankrupt or that we are dead does not relieve the insurance company from the liability of paying that indemnity to the person insured. That is the purpose of this bill.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I understand the provisions of this bill applies to the insurance company; it says, "the insurance carrier."

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, that is, the insurance company insures a person against accident. In other words, if an insurance company insures you or insures your machine and your machine runs over someone and injures him, and subsequently you become bankrupt or die, the insurance company is still liable to pay the amount of the judgment recovered against you, notwithstanding the fact that you are execution-proof or that you are dead.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentlemau, suppose you carry your own insurance and become insolvent or bankrupt; how can you recover from that company?

Mr. GLASS. Mr. Speaker, you recover from the insurance company. It only applies where an insurance company has issued a policy of insurance and they insure the person and an accident happens, and the person insured becomes insolvent and dies, the insurauce company is still liable, but he cannot be liable to a greater extent than the amount of the policy. That is all there is to it, and I think it is a very meritorious measure.

Mr. PHILLIPS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman, it does not apply to persons who carry their own insurance?

Mr. WILLIAM T. WALLACE. Mr. Speaker, I think that a little explanation will make it a little clearer than it has been made as yet. An indemnity policy of this kind that is issued by insurance companies, who agree to indemnity people whom they insure in cases of loss, does not provide that it protects the man who brings the action. The Superior Courts have determined that there is a difference between a policy of insurance and a policy of indemnity. If a man is liable and suit is brought against someone who is injured, and he is judgment-proof or execution-proof, it, therefore, does not pay any money. Under many of the terms of these policies, the insurance company is not called upon to indemnify him and hence does not pay out any money. This is an absolute insurance covering both the man who brings the action and the man who is suffering the loss; this bill is intended to make the insurance company pay whether the man is execution-proof or not. The insurance companies will say, "Well, if it costs more to do business by paying claims of that kind, we have an easy mark in the public and we will have simply to raise the rate." I simply want to make this explanation.

Shall the bill pass finally?

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. W. H. Feldmann, offered the following prayer:

O eternal and everlasting One, with whom there is no yesterday and no to-morrow, grant unto us that we may find a place bright and beautiful in Thy plan for us and for the world; that in the onward sweep of events it shall be given unto us to plant roses by the way and not thorns and thistles; that we shall be so blessed by Thee that light and wisdom and truth shall shower down upon us and our way shall be clear because of Thy everlasting guidance and truth. Even as we are not a nation, but a continent, grant us that we may be continental in our thoughts; that even as our mountains rise skyward, so may our ideals ever be upward; and as our broad plains stretch out in limitless miles, give unto us breadth of vision in all things we do so there shall be not the confines of our poor human efforts, but a divine guidance that leads to great and good things. Amen.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 646.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I am returning, without my approval, House Bill No. 646, entitled "An Act to amend section one of an act approved the twenty-third day of April, one thousand nine hundred and nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-one), entitled 'An Act making it a misdemeanor for any person to make, utter, circulate or transmit false or derogatory statements affecting the solvency or financial standing of any bank, banking house, banking company, trust company, surety company, guarantee company, title insurance company or other financial institution in this Commonwealth, and providing penalties for violation of this act' by extending the provisions of said act to life and fire insurance companies."

This bill extends the provisions of an act which was intended to protect corporations which receive deposits of money, and which were in danger of sudden and large withdrawals by their depositors to companies that are in no such danger.

I am of the opinion that life and fire insurance companies are not within the reason which led to the passage of the original act, and considering the heavy penalties which are imposed, I have concluded that insurance companies ought not to be brought within the scope of this law.

For these reasons, this bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency, the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. GANS, seconded by Mr. DRINKHOUSE,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 899.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Executive Chamber, Harrisburg, May 17, 1919.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen: I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 899, entitled "An Act amending the first and second sections of an act entitled 'An Act to regulate the salaries of tipstaves in the courts of common pleas, oyer and terminer and general jail delivery, quarter sessions of the peace and orphans' courts in counties having a population of over eight hundred thousand and less than one million four hundred thousand inhabitants,' approved the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen, by increasing the minimum and maximum salaries of said tipstaves and making the president judge of the court of common pleas or orphans' court a member of the salary board when such salaries are to be fixed."

I have already vetoed a bill increasing the salaries of tipstaves in certain counties of the State.

I can see no reason at this time warranting the increase of tipstaves' salaries and, therefore, cannot approve this measure.

For these reasons, this bill is not approved.

WM. C. SPROUL.

And the question being,

Shall the bill become a law, the objections of His Excellency, the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

A motion was made by Mr. DITHRICH, seconded by Mr. SIMPSON,

That the question, together with the further consideration of the communication, be laid upon the table.

Which was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1590, entitled

An Act to amend section one thousand six hundred seven of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred and nine) entitled "An Act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith"

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, to my mind the only purpose of this bill appears to be to create more teachers in the high schools of the first and second class cities. I think we have enough of these extras in the high schools at the present time, especially in the first class school districts, where we have twenty thousand children on half time on account of not having proper facilities to educate them. Let us use the money first in educating the children in the elementary schools before adding additional expenses in the high schools.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. GOLDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that further consideration of this bill be postponed for the present.

Mr. BENCHOFF. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 751 (Senate Bill No. 89), entitled

An Act to amend section fourteen of an act approved the eighteenth day of July, one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand and forty-three) entitled "An Act establishing a public school employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes, defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes; exempting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judiciary process; and providing penalties."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to say that the teachers of the State of Pennsylvania do not wish this bill to pass. Under the retirement system, as provided for in the last session of the Legislature, all teachers shall retire at the age of seventy years. This present bill amending that act has been introduced in the Senate and sent over here for the obvious object of taking care of certain people over seventy years of age. We believe that if the ordinary teachers become incapacitated at the age of seventy years, that the law should apply to the principles or heads of high schools or heads of departments as well. For that reason I say that this bill should be voted down.

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I doubt very much whether the gentlmen is entirely correct in his statement that the school teachers of Pennsylvania do not want this bill. The bill provides that if the teacher is willing, after he has reached the age of seventy years, he shall be allowed by the board to serve; but first of all the teacher must be willing to serve. The teacher may take advantage of the retirement act but is not compelled to. Let me say this to you, gentlemen of the House: That great things have been done by people after they have reached the age of seventy-five years; that the work done in St. Peters by Michael Angelo was done after he had reached the age of eighty-three; that Von Moltke was still at the head of the German forces when he was ninety; and that many of the most interesting and most remarkable things in history have been performed by individuals long after they reached the age of seventy years; and if a person who comes under this particular measure is seventy years or over and has a keen mind and is capable and willing to serve, tell me why this Legislature should put a ban on him, regardless of his usefulness. It would not be a proper thing to do. It is practically recommending the general proposition that when we reach seventy years of age, no matter how competent we may be, we shall be declared of no further use. For the reasons that I have set forth and because of the perfect liberality of the present bill in giving these persons a right to serve only if they agree to and yet still maintaining their right to retire thereafter whenever they see fit, I ask you to support this measure.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer).

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Schuylkill (Mr. Palmer) permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. PALMER. Yes, sir, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Martin) will proceed.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, admitting that it is possible for people over seventy years of age to be of great service, what argument can you use for admitting principals or heads of high schools and heads of departments to the provisions of this bill and excluding the ordinary teachers? If the ordinary teacher is supposed to be incapacitated at the age of seventy years, why are not the heads of departments and principals of high schools?

Mr. PALMER. Mr. Speaker, I would be in favor of going further than this bill goes; but the fact that I would be in favor of going further than the bill goes is no reason why I should not be for the bill, because I think it has gone some distance.

MOTION TO POSTPONE BILL.

Mr. MARTIN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. BOLARD. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Mr. JAMES A. WALKER. Mr. Speaker, an examination of this bill shows that the retirement fund of every school district in this State is benefited by it, and for this reason: If a school teacher has arrived at the age of seventy years, and is capable of conducting his or her work in a proper way, and is then, under the present law, forced to retire, that means that someone else must take the place of the retired teacher's salary; whereas the retired teachers goes on a pension at, let us say, fifty per cent. of his or her salary.
